

Join Minnesota Teens for AIDS Prevention (MN-TAP) for the 2007-2008 School Year

Are you between the ages of 13 and 18? Do you care about HIV prevention? Do you want schools in Minnesota to offer comprehensive sex education? If you answered yes to these questions, you should become a member of Minnesota Teens for AIDS Prevention (MN-TAP). Past MN-TAP members have accomplished the following:

- Produced a Community Forum on Comprehensive Sex Education
- Produced a Documentary on Comprehensive Sex Education
- Lobbied Elected Officials at the State Capitol
- Volunteered at the Minnesota AIDS Walk
- Attended a National Conference on Sex Education in Washington, D.C.

If you are interested in applying to be a member of the 2007-2008 MN-TAP program contact Kate Nelson at the Minnesota AIDS Project. The 2007-2008 program year will begin in early October.
