

SAVE
THE DATE

Every Student Connected: Communication, Culture, and Climate

Keynote speaker:

Scott Staska, principal, Rocori High School

Wednesday, March 7, 2007

Earle Brown Heritage Center

6155 Earle Brown Dr.

Brooklyn Center, MN 55430

8:30 a.m. – 3:30 p.m.

Workshop will include:

- Creating/preserving safe schools and healthy students: What we know and what we can do.
- Developing a language of connection.
- Setting up school climate committees.
- Addressing bullying with positive, proactive, and effective strategies.
- Reducing the impact of gangs on school climate.
- Modeling positive climate through positive staff relationships.
- Training bus staff on connectedness strategies.

Who should attend?

Middle school and high school teachers, administrators, students, parents, and people who work with youth.

Fees*:

$45 individual

$150 Team (up to four people)

$20 students

* Preregistration and payment are required.

Registration due by February 27, 2007. Space is limited.

A brochure will follow in February. If you have questions call 612-348-5618.

Sponsored by the Initiative for Violence-Free Families of Family & Children's Service, the Hennepin County Human Services and Public Health Department, and the Hennepin County Attorney's Office.

