

City of Saint Paul

Proclamation

Whereas, healthy attitudes about sexuality are essential to raising responsible, self-reliant children; and

Whereas, parents are the primary sources of sexuality education for their children; and

Whereas, parents need support from family, friends, neighbors, schools, community organizations and institutions to instill and reinforce in their children healthy attitudes toward sexuality; and

Whereas, "Let's Talk Month" is a national and statewide initiative that underscores the importance of a strong partnership between families and their communities to help young people foster responsible, positive attitudes about their sexuality; and

Whereas, working together, parents and their communities can provide the information and support necessary to prepare today's young people for their responsibilities as adults and parents of tomorrow;

Now, Therefore, I, Christopher B. Coleman, Mayor of the City of Saint Paul, do hereby proclaim October 2008, to be:

"Let's Talk Month"

in the City of Saint Paul.

In Witness Whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Seal of the City of Saint Paul to be affixed this First Day of October in the Year Two Thousand Eight.
