

Right from the Start:

Parents as Sexuality Educators

For parents (and caring adults) with children from preschool to grade 12

An evening event with Deborah Roffman, Author and Family Life Educator

Right from the Start: Parents as Sexuality Educators

Monday, October 6, 7-8:30 p.m.

Hopkins Center for the Arts

1111 Mainstreet in downtown Hopkins, (between 11th and 12th Avenues)

Even in today's media-saturated world, research demonstrates that parents and caregivers are the most significant influence in the lives of young people and are their most effective buffer against risk-taking behaviors. Deborah Roffman, nationally known author and family life educator, will explore effective strategies for parents and caregivers as primary sexuality educators of their children from birth to the teen years. Ms. Roffman will share her insights, humor, and practical applications based on decades of experience working in the classroom and with parents and professionals.

Cost: $10/person; $15/household
