

Meeting the Unique Needs of Adolescent Mothers & Fathers

Saturday, September 26

9:00 a.m. - 2:00 pm.

Beltrami Electric Cooperative

Community Room

Practical Tips for Working with Teen Moms & Dads

Saturday, September 26

2:15 p.m. - 4:15 p.m.

4111 Technology Dr. NW

Bemidji, MN 56601

Cost for both trainings: $50 MOAPPP members/$85 non-members
Cost for Meeting the Unique Needs: $35 members/$70 non-members
Cost for Practical Tips: $25 members/$60 non-members

Objectives for Meeting the Unique Needs of Adolescent Mothers and Fathers:

- National & state data related to teen parents
- Adolescent development
- Competing developmental agendas of teen parents & their children
- Key components of effective teen parent programs
- Systems impacting teen parents

Objectives for Practical Tips for Working with Teen Moms and Dads:

- Ideas for groups and individuals
- Helping teen parents understand their children's perspective
- Fun ways to communicate parenting concepts
- iGeneration communication

Partial scholarships are available.

MOAPPP is committed to making this training available to all professionals who wish to attend. To request a scholarship application, contact moapp@moapp.org.

Certificates of attendance will be distributed at the end of the training event. Participants self-report continuing education credits to their respective state boards. Reasonable accommodations for people with disabilities will be provided but must be requested at least two weeks prior to the training event.

For more information:

Contact Sue Fust at 651-644-1447x 15, sue@moapp.org

